Why Bladder Manager?

Bladder Manager features a powerful, clinically studied extract from the Angelica archangelica leaf. This extract of angelica is from plants grown in the pristine air and soil of Iceland.

CLINICALLY STUDIED

This prized botanical in Iceland has been used traditionally for over 1,000 years. Abundant in the fresh landscape of Iceland, angelica is still recognized as a valuable resource. The angelica leaves used in this formula are gathered by local people in an eco-friendly manner, and the procurement process is monitored and sustainable.

Clinical strength support for bladder function and capacity, day or night.*

Bladder Manager contains key compounds to support the smooth muscle of the bladder. This amazing extract provides documented benefits, too. In fact, participants in a clinical trial experienced support for healthy bladder function and reported improved sleep patterns as a result.*†

Ideal for Men and Women

For MEN: Beyond Prostate Health*

Unlike saw palmetto, Bladder Manager contains key compounds that support the smooth muscle of the bladder.* In fact, in Iceland, Bladder Manager outsells saw palmetto extracts.

For WOMEN: Maintains healthy urinary tract and bladder function.*

Bladder Manager gives women the bladder support they need so they can keep doing the things that bring them joy in life.*
